

From the holdings of
Western Archives, Western University

London, Ontario, Oct. 9th, 1914.

Colonel Septimus Dennison,
Adjutant General,
Headquarters, Ottawa, Ont.

Dear Colonel,-

I do not wish to bother you at a time when I know you have a great deal to do, but would like your personal advice in connection with the second contingent which is about to be mobilized. I have already applied three times for a position with some of the Overseas Cavalry and am enclosing a copy of my last application, dated Oct. 2nd, which gives my qualifications and also mentions my faithful connection with the Canadian Militia.

It is needless to say that I am extremely anxious to go, but apparently my applications have all been filed. What do you think I had better do, about the matter.

Please accept my sincere congratulations on your new appointment, and with kind regards, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be a stylized 'L' or similar monogram, located below the typed signature.