Second
APPLICATION FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.

Sir,-

In view of the First Hussars not having been called out as a Regiment and on account of the rumor that no cavalry is to be taken from this part of Canada, I have the honor to offer my services as a volunteer with any other cavalry or artillery unit that may be made up to go with the Expeditionary Force now being mobilized.

I might further add that I have been connected with the Militia since graduating from the Royal Military College in 1903 and have not missed an annual training since that time. I have a very fair knowledge of the French language and hope that my application will receive consideration.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your obedient servant,

.....
Major
Adjutant First Hussars.
