

From the holdings of Western Archives, Western University

FIRST Hussar Casualties Sept 26-29

#112048 Pte - FLORENCE W.L. slight wound face
enlisted in Waterloo (back to duty now)

#112086 Pte - LOWMAN C. fairly serious
home in Woodstock lent

#112011 Pte - BEST W. shell shock (at office)
enlisted in Ridgelytown lent

#112012 Pte BILLINGS A. wound in leg.
enlisted in Waterloo

#112123 Pte SALMONS T.G. leg wound.
Dundas St (east) London lent

#112018 Pte BRAY H.E. fairly serious
Father is rector at Thamesford

#112042 Pte DUNBAR R.J. head (crushed)
Woodstock lent

#112118 Sgt REMINGTON Ad. bullet wound?
RA #2 Moseley lent

#112031 Pte CORNWALL serious
St Thomas lent

#112020 Corp BRYAN J.H. bullet wound?
bank clerk in London (home King St)

#112029 Pte CLEMENTS E.G. body wound
enlisted in London

#112155 Pte WEBBER G.S. (bullet wound?)
Byron lent

Pte Mudds jr shell shock

It is hard to describe wounds as we have not seen men since and of course they were always at once taken to nearest dressing station and often by other stretcher bearers than our own.

7 Oct 1916

L.