Dearest Alice

Can I once again trouble you to mail the enclosed. I have written now to very nearly all the Aunts and Uncles on both sides so feel I have done my duty. Sent out my last batch of Panadigue Christmas Cards and hand-colored the grounds a little more fully than I did last year. It is an easy way of remembering people but not all the same. I hope you will like the picture. I wish I could send you more.

I am enclosing some clippings also that Sarah sent me. I feel at last that I am making a little head way with my French but they have some many

"idées unagmes" that one needs more than a good vocabulary. Very much love and every good wish. I am from your devotedly
