Dearest Mother

Just a few lines to say I am on leave here with Sarah since Sunday when I picked her up at TOURS after spending one night and came right on to this lovely sea side spot.

My leave came in last Thursday and I got off on Friday noon by motor to where I caught a train at 5:00 got to Paris that night and left next morning and found Sally looking badly so decided she needed a change and made our plans in a hurry.

Unfortunately many restrictions to civilian travelling and we are now on way to Bordeaux to report to Commissioner of Police but hope to get back tonight and so only lose one day. It is too bad but cannot be helped a beautiful spot and good hotel and no Americans as they have put everyone "out of bounds" a week ago and hotel business has gone flat but suits us very well.

I have ordered things to be forwarded mail so should hear from you soon and will try and write a diary letter soon.

We are going to enjoy a good holiday and rest and not attempt very much.
I hope the weather holds.

Quite like the south of France here Train moving again so will close with much love

Ill
