Biographical Sketch/Administrative History

Worrall, James: James Worrall was born in Bury, Lancashire, England in 1914 and immigrated to Canada in 1922. He graduated from McGill University and from MacDonal College in Montreal in 1935 and taught at Upper Canada College in Toronto before entering Osgoode Hall Law School. He was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1941. After three years service in the Royal Canadian Air Force he returned to private legal practice in 1945. He continued to practice law, largely in civil litigation and criminal law, until 1976. He acted as counsel on two Federal Royal Commissions and served as an officer and director of several private companies, the Metropolitan Toronto Licensing Commission (as chairman for five years), the Land Compensation Board of Ontario, and the Ontario Municipal Board.

A high-school track and field award recipient, Worrall competed in track and field and water polo for McGill and held several inter-collegiate athletics records. He represented Canada at the 1934 British Empire Games in London and was a silver medalist in the hurdles. His connection with the Olympics dates from 1936 when he competed at the Berlin Summer Games in the 110m and 400m hurdles and where he was selected as the Canadian flag bearer for the opening ceremony. He qualified for the 1938 British Empire Games but withdrew in order to attend law school.

After World War Two Worrall re-established the Ontario Track and Field Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada (AAUC) and served as its chair for several years. In 1947 he became a member of the AAUC Olympic Committee and was appointed Assistant Chef de Mission to the Canadian Team at the Olympic Games in London the following year. He became a charter member and later vice-president of the reorganized and independent Canadian Olympic Association (COA) in 1948 and served as Assistant Chef de Mission in Helsinki in 1952 and Chef de Mission in Melbourne and Rome in 1956 and 1960 respectively. He was elected President of the COA in 1961, serving in that capacity until 1968. He also served as Commissioner General of Olympic House at Expo 67 in Montreal. He was appointed Honorary Life President of the COA in 1989.

Worrall was appointed as a Canadian representative to the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in 1967. In 1974 he served on the IOC Commission on Rhodesia and was elected to the Executive Board of the IOC, the first Canadian to be so recognized. He also chaired the Commission of the Revision of the Charter, a special commission that reviewed the Olympic Charter and associated rules and by-laws, the recommendations of which were adopted in 1990. In 1980 he ran unsuccessfully for the IOC Presidency. He retired as a voting member of the IOC in 1989 and was made an Honorary Member for life the same year.

As President of the COA and as an IOC member Worrall was involved with several applications by Canadian cities to host Pan American Games (Winnipeg 1967), Olympic Winter Games (Calgary 1964 and 1966; Vancouver 1970) and Olympic Summer Games (Montreal 1972 and 1976). He was a member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the organizing committees for the 1976 Summer Games in Montreal and the 1988 Winter Games in Calgary. He was also a director of the Toronto Ontario Olympic Council (TOOC) during its unsuccessful bid for the 1996 Summer Games.

Worrall received many prestigious awards, including the IOC Medal of the Olympic Order in 1990, the Canadian Olympic Order in Gold in 1994, and the Order of Merit from the Association of National Olympic Committees, also in 1994. He was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada in 1976, was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame as a builder and administrator in 1987, and was elected to the Winter Olympic Hall of Fame in 1991. Worrall published his autobiography, 'My Olympic Journey: Sixty Years with Canadian Sport and the Olympic Games', in 2000.

Worrall died at age 97 in October, 2011.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of extensive personal and professional correspondence, memoranda, committee agendas and minutes, official reports, subject files, various other organizational records and associated reference material and ephemera documenting much of James Worrall's lifetime of involvement in amateur sport and the Olympic Movement in Canada and internationally. The contents are particularly valuable in documenting the activities of the Canadian Olympic Association (renamed Canadian Olympic Committee in 2002) and the evolution of sport across the country. The records contain detailed information on the planning and conduct of the Montreal (1976) and Calgary (1988) Olympics, as well as on several unsuccessful bids by Canadian cities to host various international sporting events. The records also deal extensively with the activities of the International Olympic Committee and document aspects of the internal workings of the IOC, its relationship with various national and international sporting organizations and its involvement in and influence upon many important international issues.

Fonds has been arranged into the following series:

1. Personal Files
2. Canadian Olympic Association (COA)
3. International Olympic Committee
4. Montreal Olympic Organizing Committee (COJO)
5. Calgary Olympics Organizing Committee (OCO'88)
6. Olympic Games
7. Olympic Games Candidate City Bids
8. Canadian Sports Organizations and Federations
9. National and International Sports Organizations and Federations
10. National Olympic Committees (NOC)
11. National and International Games and Athletic Events

Custodial History

The fonds was donated by James Worrall and was received by the University in two separate accessions. Accession A, consisting of 24 boxes and 23 binders, was received in August and September 2005. Accession B, comprising 44 boxes, was received in September 2006. A single deed of gift-in-kind covering the entire fonds was signed on August 29, 2006.

Scope and Content

Sub-series contains personal and professional correspondence between Worrall and many key individuals involved in the Olympic Movement both at the national and international level, including: Sidney A. Dawes, Bruce Kidd, Richard W. Pound, Howard Radford, Frank Shaughnessy, and Jan Staubo, along with professional correspondence with other sports-related activities and organisations, including private sports foundations and government organisations. Sub-series is listed chronologically and contains correspondence that was filed and labelled by Worrall. Due to Worrall's lifelong personal interest and professional involvement with sport and the Olympic Movement, it is recommended that researchers also look in Series 1.1 Correspondence, as well as correspondence in every series for the most comprehensive understanding of Worrall's affairs.

Scope and Content

Sub-series contains internal and external correspondence created and received by the COA and its members; professional colleagues ; other national committees and international sport federations, societies, and organizations; and the IOC. Types of correspondence include: memoranda; news rounds; updates; notices; and discussion on a variety of sport-related topics such as doping, ethics, Olympic bids, trademark use, and IOC visits. Loose correspondence is filed chronologically by year. Correspondence filed by Worrall also includes personal and IOC correspondence in original order, and the folder is filed chronologically. It is also recommended to look in Series 2.17 General for other correspondence, as well as correspondence in other series, particularly Series 3 International Olympic Committee, for the most comprehensive understanding of Worrall's affairs.

Scope and Content

Sub-series contains internal memoranda, correspondence, and circular letters; and external correspondence to colleagues, national Olympic committees, international sports federations, and other sports-related people. Correspondence covers an array of topics including trips and travel by Worrall and other IOC members, photocopies of correspondence from the IOC archives, and petitions to include certain sports in future Olympic games. Correspondence filed by Worrall is listed first and is sorted chronologically. Following is loose correspondence that has been grouped together by year and filed chronologically. Correspondence in other series should also be looked at for the most comprehensive understanding of Worrall's affairs.

Scope and Content

Series documents, in varying levels of detail, a wide range of activities associated with several summer and winter Olympic Games, from the submission of bids and proposals, through their review and approval, to the actual planning, conduct and evaluation of the events. It consists of memoranda and correspondence; organizing committee and mission reports; speeches; communications, media coverage and press releases; accreditation information; event guides and results; opening and other official ceremonies and medal presentations; and promotional material. Also includes records relating to various local issues, including political concerns. Most appear to have originated with or were received under the auspices of the IOC.

Additional materials on Canada's involvement in the games are located in Series 2 Canadian Olympic Association (COA). Additional materials also located in Series 3 International Olympic Committee (IOC).

Records on the Montreal summer games (1976) are located in Series 5 and records on the Calgary winter games (1988) are located in Series 4.

Scope and Content

Series documents, in varying levels of detail, the review of unsuccessful bids and proposals submitted to the IOC on behalf of cities around the world vying to host summer and winter games. It consists of formal submissions received from the bid cities, normally comprising official documents, organizational information, and promotional materials (including VHS and audio cassettes). It also includes media coverage of the bids; internal and external memoranda and correspondence; IOC site visit documents and reports; and related reference materials. It also contains extensive records on the Toronto Ontario Olympic Committee (TOOC), reflecting Worrall's involvement as a director, including Board of Director meeting packages and minutes. Other bid-related materials are located in Series 2 Canadian Olympic Association (COA) and 3 International Olympic Committee (IOC).

Series has been arranged into the following sub-series:

Sub-series 1 Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC)

Sub-series 2 International Olympic Committee (IOC)

Sub-series 3 Amsterdam, The Netherlands - 1992

Sub-series 4 Anchorage, USA - 1992

Sub-series 5 Anchorage, USA - 1994

Biographical Sketch/Administrative History

Worrall, James: James Worrall was born in Bury, Lancashire, England in 1914 and immigrated to Canada in 1922. He graduated from McGill University and from MacDonal College in Montreal in 1935 and taught at Upper Canada College in Toronto before entering Osgoode Hall Law School. He was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1941. After three years service in the Royal Canadian Air Force he returned to private legal practice in 1945. He continued to practice law, largely in civil litigation and criminal law, until 1976. He acted as counsel on two Federal Royal Commissions and served as an officer and director of several private companies, the Metropolitan Toronto Licensing Commission (as chairman for five years), the Land Compensation Board of Ontario, and the Ontario Municipal Board.

A high-school track and field award recipient, Worrall competed in track and field and water polo for McGill and held several inter-collegiate athletics records. He represented Canada at the 1934 British Empire Games in London and was a silver medalist in the hurdles. His connection with the Olympics dates from 1936 when he competed at the Berlin Summer Games in the 110m and 400m hurdles and where he was selected as the Canadian flag bearer for the opening ceremony. He qualified for the 1938 British Empire Games but withdrew in order to attend law school.

After World War Two Worrall re-established the Ontario Track and Field Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada (AAUC) and served as its chair for several years. In 1947 he became a member of the AAUC Olympic Committee and was appointed Assistant Chef de Mission to the Canadian Team at the Olympic Games in London the following year. He became a charter member and later vice-president of the reorganized and independent Canadian Olympic Association (COA) in 1948 and served as Assistant Chef de Mission in Helsinki in 1952 and Chef de Mission in Melbourne and Rome in 1956 and 1960 respectively. He was elected President of the COA in 1961, serving in that capacity until 1968. He also served as Commissioner General of Olympic House at Expo 67 in Montreal. He was appointed Honorary Life President of the COA in 1989.

Worrall was appointed as a Canadian representative to the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in 1967. In 1974 he served on the IOC Commission on Rhodesia and was elected to the Executive Board of the IOC, the first Canadian to be so recognized. He also chaired the Commission of the Revision of the Charter, a special commission that reviewed the Olympic Charter and associated rules and by-laws, the recommendations of which were adopted in 1990. In 1980 he ran unsuccessfully for the IOC Presidency. He retired as a voting member of the IOC in 1989 and was made an Honorary Member for life the same year.

As President of the COA and as an IOC member Worrall was involved with several applications by Canadian cities to host Pan American Games (Winnipeg 1967), Olympic Winter Games (Calgary 1964 and 1966; Vancouver 1970) and Olympic Summer Games (Montreal 1972 and 1976). He was a member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the organizing committees for the 1976 Summer Games in Montreal and the 1988 Winter Games in Calgary. He was also a director of the Toronto Ontario Olympic Council (TOOC) during its unsuccessful bid for the 1996 Summer Games.

Worrall received many prestigious awards, including the IOC Medal of the Olympic Order in 1990, the Canadian Olympic Order in Gold in 1994, and the Order of Merit from the Association of National Olympic Committees, also in 1994. He was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada in 1976, was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame as a builder and administrator in 1987, and was elected to the Winter Olympic Hall of Fame in 1991. Worrall published his autobiography, 'My Olympic Journey: Sixty Years with Canadian Sport and the Olympic Games', in 2000.

Worrall died at age 97 in October, 2011.

Scope and Content

Series documents, in varying levels of detail, information about and/or relations between the IOC and the national Olympic committees, the Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC), the Association of European National Olympic Committees (AENOC/EOC), and the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA). It consists of files containing correspondence and other documents relating to each national organization, as well as specific issues or concerns of that organization. Also included are documents relating to joint meetings of the national committees with the IOC; ANOC commissions and assemblies; AENOC newsletters and issues of its official magazine; and meeting minutes, correspondence, by-laws, reports, and bulletins of the OCA. It is recommended to also look at Series 3 for additional IOC/NOC, IOC/ANOC reports. Additional correspondence between will also be found throughout the correspondence of other series, particularly Series 1, 2, and 3. Records on Canada's national committee (COA) are in series 2.
