Administrative History

The President is the chief executive officer of the University of Western Ontario and is accountable to the Board of Governors for the management of the University's human, financial and physical resources; and for providing leadership in the University's planning, academic, research, development and fund-raising activities.

The President is responsible for the general supervision and direction of academic programs, research, faculty, staff and students; is the chief spokesperson for the University; represents the University in local, provincial, national and international communities; serves as a member, ex officio, of the Board of Governors; and makes recommendations to the board for appointments, functions of duties of the Vice-Presidents, Deans, Department Chairs, Registrar, University Librarian, and Secretary of the Senate. The President is also the Vice-Chancellor of the University, and in that capacity serves as chair of the Senate, ex officio, and member of other committees and sub-committees as determined by the Senate.

With the passage of the Western University of London Act in April, 1908, the province of Ontario authorized the establishment of the University's first Board of Governors and the ex officio Board position of President. The Board appointed Nathaniel C. James as the University's first President on September 18, 1908. He served until 1914.

The following individuals subsequently served as Western's President:

Edward Ernest Braithwaite	1914-1919
William Sherwood Fox	1927-1947
George Edward Hall	1947-1967
David Carlton Williams	1967-1977
George Edward Connell	1977-1984
Alan Kenneth Adlington (Acting)	1984-1985
Knud George Pedersen	1985-1994
Paul Theodore Davenport	1994-

Scope and Content

This fonds consists of official records of Presidents of the University of Western Ontario. The vast majority of these records are correspondence, minutes, memoranda, and reports that relate to University and external business during the periods of the individuals' appointments.

A large part of the correspondence is between the Presidents, and various University officials, or members of the public. While most series came and went with a given President, a few span the tenures of more than one President.

The fonds does not include any records of the first President of Western, Nathaniel C. James, as none are known to exist (although some of his personal records exist at Western Archives).

Arrangement

The fonds is arranged into the following series:

- Series 1 Edward Ernest Braithwaite General Correspondence
- Series 2 William Sherwood Fox General Correspondence
- Series 3 Faculty Appointments Correspondence
- Series 4 William Sherwood Fox Subject Files
- Series 5 Convocation Guest and Graduate Registers
- Series 6 George Edward Hall Correspondence
- Series 7 George Edward Hall Addresses

Note: The fonds was originally arranged and processed into three series: Edward Ernest Braithwaite, William Sherwood Fox, and George Edward Hall. This arrangement was eventually discarded.

Language of the Material

In English and French.

Series 1 Edward Ernest Braithwaite General Correspondence

Dates of Creation

1914 – 1919

Extent and Material

60 cm of textual records

Biographical Sketch

Edward Ernest Braithwaite was born in Unionville, Ontario on March 14, 1865. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from McGill University in 1886; a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Canadian Congregational College at Oberlin College in Ohio in 1900; and Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Harvard University in 1901 and 1904, respectively.

Braithwaite was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational Church, and served as pastor of the West Somerville Congregational Church in Somerville, Massachusetts from 1899 to 1900, and of the Northern Congregational Church in Toronto from 1908 to 1911. Braithwaite was a fellow in Semitic languages at the University of Chicago from 1896 to 1897, served as acting professor of Old Testament language and literature at Oberlin College and Theological Seminary from 1900 to 1902, and was Dean of Arts and member of the Board of Governors of the short-lived University of Calgary in 1912.

Reverend Doctor Braithwaite was appointed the second President of the Western University on June 5, 1914. During Braithwaite's Presidency, the University officially established the Faculty of Public Health in 1917, founded the first continuing summer school in 1918, and received recognition of its courses and degrees from the Ontario Department of Education in 1919.

Spanning the duration of World War I, Braithwaite's term also saw the organization of a contingent of the Canadian Officers' Training Corps in 1915; and the foundation of the No. 10 Canadian Stationary Hospital, known as the Western University Unit, in 1916. The University's major contribution to the war effort, the hospital unit served in France from 1917 to 1919. Braithwaite resigned from the Presidency on September 22, 1919. After leaving the University, he was associated with the Canadian Council of Churches. Edward Braithwaite died in Unionville, Ontario on December 30, 1928.

Scope and Content

This series consists primarily of correspondence relating to recognition of the University's degrees and courses, faculty appointments and references, buildings and land agreements, the Canadian Officer Training Corps (C.O.T.C.) and the No. 10 Canadian Stationary Hospital, returning servicemen, the St. John's Athletic Club, the Canadian Club, and newspaper advertising, and local residents' concerns about the University. Included are requests for calendars; and correspondence with Vincent Massey, then director of the Repatriation Committee.

Arrangement

Arrangement is alphabetical by individual last name or corporate name within yearly chronological groupings.

Related Material

Documents relating to Braithwaite may also be found in unprocessed records of the University's Board of Governors. Contact the responsible archivist for further information.

Records of the No. 10 Canadian Stationary Hospital and the Canadian Officer Training Corps are available at Western Archives.

Accruals

No further accruals are expected.

Series 2 William Sherwood Fox General and University Correspondence

Dates of Creation

1919 – 1927

Extent and Material

1.2 m of textual records

Biographical Sketch

William Sherwood Fox was born in Throopsville, New York on June 17, 1878. In 1892, the Fox family moved to Toronto where Fox studied at McMaster University, then located in the city, and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1900. After graduation, he taught classics at Brandon College in Manitoba, and then studied at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore where he earned a Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1911. Fox was a member of the classics department at Princeton University in New Jersey from 1911 to 1917, and joined the faculty at Western University of London in 1917 as professor of classics.

Appointed Dean of Arts in 1919, Fox was one of three deans who, in the absence of an appointed President from 1919 to 1927, administered the University following the resignation of President Braithwaite. Dr. Fox was appointed third President of the University of Western Ontario in November, 1927, and installed in office on October 19, 1928.

During his Presidency, the University developed affiliations with a number of Ontario colleges, changed the Department of Commercial Economics to the Department of Business Administration in 1929 and initiated graduate work in business studies in 1932; established the French Summer School at Trois-Pistoles, Quebec in 1933, the Western Conservatory of Music in 1934, the Faculty of Arts and Science in 1943, the Music Teachers' College in 1945; and the Faculty of Nursing in 1946. The campus was enlarged with the construction of the J.W. Little Memorial Stadium in 1929, the Lawson Memorial Library in 1934, the Hume Cronyn Memorial Observatory in 1940, and the McIntosh Memorial Art Gallery in 1942. An inveterate botanist, Fox enhanced the campus environment with the addition numerous specimens collected during his professional and personal travels. Dr. Fox resigned the Presidency in 1947. In his retirement, he wrote several articles on the trees of Southwestern Ontario that appeared in The London Free Press between 1948 and 1950; and Sherwood Fox of Western, a reminiscence of his life and career, in 1964. Sherwood Fox died in London, Ontario on August 15, 1967.

Scope and Content

Series consists of records of W. Sherwood Fox in his capacity as Dean of Arts, relating to college affiliation agreements; University buildings and building campaigns; University College opening ceremonies; convocation, including the 1924 Special Convocation; the Institute of Public Health, the Western Conservatory of Music, and Victoria Hospital; and alumni. Included are correspondence, including letters from notables such as Stephen Leacock, W. L. Mackenzie King, and Vincent Massey; internal memos; reports; lists; invitations; newspaper clippings on educational topics and University faculty, events, and buildings.

While these are not records of the Office of the President per se, they have been included in this inventory as they were found interfiled with such records and relate to the same functions of University governance and administration during a period when no President was in office.

Arrangement

Records are arranged in yearly groupings until July, 1922. Thereafter, the series is divided into more or less yearly groupings of general and University correspondence. Arrangement is alphabetical by individual last name or corporate name within each grouping. Each file generally corresponds to a letter of the alphabet.

Accruals

No further accruals are expected.

Biographical Sketch

William Sherwood Fox was born in Throopsville, New York on June 17, 1878. In 1892, the Fox family moved to Toronto where Fox studied at McMaster University, then located in the city, and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1900. After graduation, he taught classics at Brandon College in Manitoba, and then studied at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore where he earned a Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1911. Fox was a member of the classics department at Princeton University in New Jersey from 1911 to 1917, and joined the faculty at Western University of London in 1917 as professor of classics.

Appointed Dean of Arts in 1919, Fox was one of three deans who, in the absence of an appointed President from 1919 to 1927, administered the University following the resignation of President Braithwaite. Dr. Fox was appointed third President of the University of Western Ontario in November, 1927, and installed in office on October 19, 1928.

During his Presidency, the University developed affiliations with a number of Ontario colleges, changed the Department of Commercial Economics to the Department of Business Administration in 1929 and initiated graduate work in business studies in 1932; established the French Summer School at Trois-Pistoles, Quebec in 1933, the Western Conservatory of Music in 1934, the Faculty of Arts and Science in 1943, the Music Teachers' College in 1945; and the Faculty of Nursing in 1946. The campus was enlarged with the construction of the J.W. Little Memorial Stadium in 1929, the Lawson Memorial Library in 1934, the Hume Cronyn Memorial Observatory in 1940, and the McIntosh Memorial Art Gallery in 1942. An inveterate botanist, Fox enhanced the campus environment with the addition numerous specimens collected during his professional and personal travels. Dr. Fox resigned the Presidency in 1947. In his retirement, he wrote several articles on the trees of Southwestern Ontario that appeared in The London Free Press between 1948 and 1950; and Sherwood Fox of Western, a reminiscence of his life and career, in 1964. Sherwood Fox died in London,

Ontario on August 15, 1967.

Scope and Content

Series consists of correspondence and other documents of W. Sherwood Fox as Dean of Arts and President relating to the University's Board of Governors, Senate, committees, faculties, departments, regular and extension programs and courses, degrees, staff, research, students, buildings and building fund campaigns, supplies and equipment, convocations, donations, scholarships and fellowships, residences, affiliated colleges, athletics, and alumni. Major categories include affiliation agreements, the 1920s building campaign, and the Canadian Officer Training Corps (C.O.T.C.) contingent at Western.

Also included are intermingled files of general/miscellaneous and University correspondence (1927-1930).

Accruals

No further accruals are expected.

Arrangement

Arrangement is alphabetical by subject. The intermingled general/miscellaneous and University correspondence likely represent a continuation of the files in series 2 but the processing archivist arranged these as a separate series.

Related Material

See boxes B4146 for personal papers of William Sherwood Fox and B4192 for records of the Archibald Lampman Memorial Cairn Committee, on which Fox served.

Files marked with an asterisk (*) include some oversize material stored in boxes AFC 40 – 56, AFC 40 – 57, and AFC 40 – 58.

Biographical Sketch

George Edward Hall was born in Lindsay, Ontario on October 10, 1907. He received a B.S.A. degree from the Ontario Agricultural College (now part of the University of Guelph) in 1929. Completing his graduate studies under Sir Frederick Banting at the Banting Institute, University of Toronto, Hall received a Master's degree in biochemistry in 1931, an M.D. in 1935, and a Ph.D. in physiology in 1936. He was a research associate in 1935, assistant professor in 1936, associate professor in 1937, and full professor in the Department of Medical Research, Banting Institute, and University of Toronto. Hall joined the Canadian armed forces in 1939, and served until 1945 with the medical services of the Royal Canadian Air Force. As Director of Aviation Medical Research, Hall conducted research into the effects of high altitudes on pilots, and was awarded the Air Force Cross in 1943 for his service, and the Legion of Merit by the United States government for his work in connection with the development of oxygen equipment and protective clothing.

Hall was appointed Dean of Medicine at the University of Western Ontario in 1944, and assumed these duties following his retirement from the R.C.A.F. in February, 1945. He was appointed President of the University in 1947. Hall's term saw an expansion of the University with the establishment of the Faculty of Graduate Studies in 1947, the School of Business Administration in 1949, the Faculty of Law in 1959, the Faculty of Engineering Science in 1957, the Faculty of Dentistry in 1965, and the School of Library and Information Science in 1966.

In addition to his duties at Western, Hall served as an officer of the Association of Commonwealth Universities, the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada, the National Cancer Institute, and the Canadian Forces Medical Council; and as a member of the National Research Council, the Research Council of Ontario, the Canada Council, and the Ontario Fluoridation Investigating Committee. Dr. Hall retired from the University Presidency on June 30, 1967. In retirement, he held various directorships, conducted a consultant study of air pollution for the government of Ontario, and served as Chairman of the Board of Northern Life Assurance Company of Canada. Edward Hall died in London, Ontario on February 11, 1972.

Scope and Content

Series consists of correspondence and other records relating to the University's Board of Governors, Senate, faculties, departments, research (especially medical), staff, buildings and building fund campaigns, convocations, donations, scholarships and fellowships, residences, affiliated colleges, and alumni; councils and associations on which Hall served. Major topics include the Museum of Indian Archaeology and Pioneer Life, and the Duff-Berdahl Commission on University organization.

Included are correspondence, including letters from Roland Michener, Vincent Massey, Louis St. Laurent, John Diefenbaker and Leslie Frost; minutes of meetings; reports; financial reports and account statements; invitations; speeches; statistics; and newspaper clippings on education and University events and staff.

Accruals

No further accruals are expected.

Arrangement

Arrangement is alphabetical by subject or correspondent within yearly chronological groupings. Prior to 1956, the chronological groupings were 1947-1951, 1952-1954, and 1954-1956.
