

Citing Sources According to Chicago Style (16th ed.)

Use this guide to organize your Bibliography and the Notes either at the foot of each page or at the end of your essay, or your Reference List and Parenthetical Notes if you use the author/date method of citing sources. The guide is based on the sixteenth edition of The Chicago Manual of Style, available at DBW ref quick NO LOAN Z 253.C572 2010; IMS reference and King's Reference Collection NO LOAN Z253.U9 2010; BRES reference NO LOAN PE1408.C53 2010; and HUR ref quick NO LOAN PE1408.U54 2010. Please consult the manual to cite materials not included below (e.g.: videos, lectures, speeches, emails, etc.).

See also the complete online version of The Chicago Manual of Style which is available by a title search in the Shared Library Catalogue. [If you are not on campus, remember to log in via Off-Campus Access first to use this resource.]

This guide covers: Print Books and E-books, Edited Books, Online and Print Journal Articles, Online and Print Newspaper Articles, Art Exhibition Catalogues, Online and Print Government Publications, and Web Pages.
