

Eddy Smet

Eddy Smet obtained a BA, MA, and PhD in Mathematics from Western (1962-1973). He was a faculty member of Huron University College (1976-2006) and, as a devoted teacher, was highly regarded by his students.

He also was an avid collector of comic books and related material. In 2009 he began donating portions of his collection yearly to the Western Archives and Special Collections creating a legacy, The Dr. Eddy Smet Collection of Comic Books, to preserve the material for future generations and make it available to support research and teaching in a number of fields.
