

John E. Martin

---

Western

A gift to

Western Libraries

In memory of John Martin who was a lifelong resident of London and a graduate of Western University. He obtained a Masters of Library Science while teaching elementary and secondary school classes with the London Board of Education. After retiring he worked with the Western Library Archives and Special Collections.