

Lem and Toye Wong

Donated by Gretta Wong Grant and family in memory of their parents, Lem and Toye Wong, February 2013. This generous contribution has been made in support of Western Libraries' Global Library Space Initiative, which aims to strategically transform library spaces into learning spaces that will not only meet the expressed needs of today's students and scholars, but also promote cross-cultural understanding and create a sense of connectedness in today's global learning environment.
