

Reid Alan Worrall

A gift to

Western Libraries

In honour of

Reid Alan Worrall

Donated and written by Reid Alan Worrall. Reid attended Beck Secondary School in London, Ontario then in 1980 obtained an Honours Bachelor of Geography Degree from Western University. Reid is the author of the undergraduate thesis "The Evolution of the Boundaries of the City of London, Ontario." Reid has been cited in the books "The North and the East of London..." by John H. Lutman and Christopher Hives and "The Boundary Bargain:..." by Zachary Spicer. Reid's thesis which was written in 1980 under the direction of the late Dr. N.L. Nicholson a Western Geography Professor, has been widely used in local history circles and consultant studies. His thesis is available at the London Public Library and at Western Archives. Reid is interested in local history and conservation. His parents were John and Grace Worrall. He has a brother Scott. Reid is predeceased by his twin sister, Laurie.