Biographical Sketch/Administrative History

Westland, Leonard George: Leonard George Westland owned and operated a hardware and paint store in London South on Wortley Road near Bruce St. in the first part of the 20th century. He was also an amateur photographer. Leonard George Westland owned and operated a hardware and paint store in London South on Wortley Road near Bruce St. in the first part of the 20th century. He was also an amateur photographer.

Scope and Content

This fonds is comprised of b&w photographs scanned for the Western Archives from photograph albums loaned to us by Westland descendants in 2006. The photographs were selected from the albums based on their local interest in the topics photographed. There are scanned copies of pictures of London and Middlesex County (including areas now part of London including Lambeth and Byron), Port Stanley, Sarnia and other surrounding villages and rural areas in southwestern Ontario. Westland took the photographs between ca. 1905-12. There are many local landmarks, events and views that were of interest to Leonard Westland.

Arrangement

Western Archives has arranged the collection according to the subject matter of the images.

Title Notes

Title is based on caption in album or contents of the photograph.
